

RESOLUTION

Whereas, George White was a man of unwavering faith, a loving husband to Linda Griffin White for thirty five years. A family man and father to 5 children, 2 nieces and 2 nephews.

Whereas, George was a staunch supporter of racial and economic justice for the working class, who did the work and did not just talk about it.

Whereas, George was a long time member of SEIU HCII first as a nursing home worker and later as a homecare worker.

Whereas, George was an activist for the nursing home division of HCIIKM. George's union leadership continued where he played an important role on bargaining committees while at Addus Healthcare.

Whereas, George's calm level headed and driven approach to bargaining was effective in winning historic and paid time off for thousands of workers across the state of Illinois.

Whereas, George was on the SEIU Executive Board where he was part of the union wide decision impacting ninety thousand healthcare and child care providers in Illinois, Indiana, Missouri and Kansas.

Whereas, George worked to get the vote out for candidate Brandon Johnson and was a strong activist who effectively canvassed for Bring Chicago Home.

Whereas, George's faith, kindness and commitment to justice and fairness will be his lasting legacy.

By:

Alderman Desmond Yancy, Fifth Ward