Attachment A-1

The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation (the "Corporation"), acting through its subsidiaries, The Bank of New York Mellon and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., is trustee on thousands of bond transactions which are secured by mortgages on real property that are held in trust and registered in the name of the Bank of New York Mellon or The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee. The mortgages are serviced by third-party service providers who are required to provide the necessary administrative services related to the mortgages, such as paying property taxes and complying with the local real estate ordinances. From time to time, the third-party services providers may fail to fulfil their obligations, resulting in fines and judgments. Such fines and judgments may be assessed and entered against the Bank of New York Mellon or The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. because, as trustee, it is the lien-holder or owner of record. The third-party service provider is obligated to pay such fines and remedy or pay such judgments.

In addition, like all major institutions, the Corporation and/or subsidiaries are subject to various litigations and proceedings pursuant to which judgments, injunctions, or liens may be issued. There have been no judgments, injunctions or liens arising out of such litigations or proceedings in the last five years that would materially impair the Corporation's or its subsidiaries ability to perform the services relating to the Matter. For a description of certain legal proceedings, please see the "Legal Proceedings" section in the Corporation's Form 10-K and 10-Qs, which are available on our website, <http://www.bnymellon.com>. In addition, The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. has, in a very limited number of cases, been removed as trustee due to administrative service issues; none of such issues would impact the ability of The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. to perform the services related to the Matter.

The mortgages are serviced by third-party service providers who are required to provide the necessary administrative services related to the mortgages, such as paying property taxes and complying with the local real estate ordinances. From time to time, the third-party services providers may fail to fulfil their obligations, resulting in fines and judgments. Such fines and judgments may be assessed and entered against the Bank of New York Mellon or The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. because, as trustee, it is the lien-holder or owner of record. The third-party service provider is obligated to pay such fines and remedy or pay such judgments.

In addition, like all major institutions, the Corporation and/or subsidiaries are subject to various litigations and proceedings pursuant to which judgments, injunctions, or liens may be issued. There have been no judgments, injunctions or liens arising out of such litigations or proceedings in the last five years that would materially impair the Corporation's or its subsidiaries ability to perform the services relating to the Matter. For a description of certain legal proceedings, please see the "Legal Proceedings" section in the Corporation's Form 10-K and 10-Qs, which are available on our website, <http://www.bnymellon.com>. In addition, The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. has, in a very limited number of cases, been removed as trustee due to administrative service issues; none of such issues would impact the ability of The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. to perform the services related to the Matter.

The Disclosing Party was established in 2007. The Disclosing Party has identified 60 predecessor institutions established before 1866. Among these predecessor entities is the Disclosing Party's wholly-owned subsidiary, The Bank of New York Mellon (formerly known as The Bank of New York), which was established in 1784.

There are scattered references in the records of the Disclosing Party's pre-1866 predecessors to clients located in the southern states where slavery was practiced during the slavery era. The Disclosing Party's predecessors provided business services to these southern clients which included: issuing loans to individual and correspondent banking accounts; providing reciprocal banking services for other banks; and providing bond and stock administration and depository services on behalf of other banks and municipalities. Some of these predecessors may have also invested in bonds and stocks of southern institutions or bonds issues by southern states. The southern states, municipalities, banks, companies and individuals referenced in the records are: Bank of Baltimore; City Bank of Baltimore; Stephen Duncan; DuPlanty, McCall & Co.; Bank of Kentucky; Bank of Maryland; State of Maryland; Bank of Montgomery; Bank of North Carolina; Bank of South Carolina; New Orleans Canal and Banking Company; City of New Orleans; Commercial Bank of New Orleans; Planters Bank of Mississippi; Simsville Cotton Factory; Southern Life Insurance and Trust Company; Planters Bank of Tennessee; State of Tennessee. The Bank of New York also held one or more bank accounts on behalf of Charles P. Leverick and/or his New York company Charles P. Leverick & Co. ("Leverick & Co."), Leverick was a director of The Bank of New York from 1840 to 1876, and was a Vice President (1853-1863) and President (1863-1876) of the Bank. Leverick & Co. was a New York cotton broker which had extensive dealings with southern clients from the 1830s through 1879, when the firm was dissolved. Leverick & Co. also acted as a factor for southern planters. It also appears that Leverick & Co. may have helped manage a plantation – James Porter's Oak Lawn in Bayou Teche, Louisiana – for one of its southern clients.

Based on the Disclosing Party's research, there are indications in United States census records for the period 1790 to 1860 that some directors of The Bank of New York and some officers and directors of the Farmer's Bank of the State of Delaware may have owned slaves before, during, and/or after their association with such institutions.

A predecessor of the Disclosing Party, the New York Life Insurance and Trust Company ("NYLITC") (which bears no relation to the present New York Life Insurance Company), was founded in 1830 and merged with The Bank of New York in 1922. NYLITC issued life insurance policies to some of its clients, including a few individuals who resided in the southern states where slavery was practiced during the slavery era. There are no indications in the records that NYLITC issues any slaveholder insurance policies.

The records of NYLITC reflect that in 1842, NYLITC loaned a sum of money to the Southern Life Insurance and Trust Company ("Southern Life"). This loan was secured by an assignment to NYLITC of several mortgages originated and held by Southern Life, including a mortgage dated April 1, 1837, on "Hanson's Plantation," located in St. John's County, near St. Augustine Florida and owned by John Hanson and Margaret Cook. This Southern Life mortgage included a pledge of 21 named slaves. The names and ages of these slaves are recorded in the NYLITC ledger entry for the loan and are listed in Appendix A to this statement. There are no indications in the records that Southern Life ever defaulted on this loan, or that NYLITC ever foreclosed on any of the assigned mortgages.

Section II – Disclosure of Ownership Interests

As disclosed in the Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement, dated April 30, 2024, of Wells Fargo & Company (“Wells Fargo”), The Vanguard Group, Inc. and certain entities controlled or under common control with The Vanguard Group, Inc. (collectively the “Reporting Persons”) held approximately 8.99% of outstanding publicly traded common stock of Wells Fargo as of February 14, 2024. On information and belief, and in reliance on the statements made by The Vanguard Group, Inc. in a Schedule 13G/A filed with the SEC on February 13, 2024, the reported holdings represented shares of Wells Fargo’s common stock acquired by the Reporting Persons as passive investors and held in the ordinary course of business, without any intent to acquire, change, or influence control of Wells Fargo. Wells Fargo does not know if the Reporting Persons currently hold more than 7.5% of its outstanding common stock. In any event, Wells Fargo has no authority or ability to require the Reporting Persons to file, and the Reporting Persons are under no obligation to assist or cooperate with Wells Fargo in filing, an EDS.

Section III – Income or Compensation to, or Ownership by, City Elected Officials

The undersigned warrants, to the best of his knowledge after due inquiry, that the Disclosing Party has not provided any income or compensation to any City elected official in 12 months before, nor does the undersigned reasonably expect to during the 12-month period following, the date the undersigned has signed this EDS. As the date of this filing, the undersigned is in the process of completing our due diligence on Independent Contracts, when completed we will update this response if needed.

Note that in the ordinary course of its business, Wells Fargo makes loans of various types with individuals and businesses. We have determined that these loans do not constitute a "business relationship" as defined in Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code.

Note further that the Disclosing Party has no way of identifying spouses or domestic partners of any City elected official, or the identities of any entities in which any city elected official or his or her spouse or domestic partner has a financial interest, and thus limits its certification to "City elected officials" as specially required by Section III. Specifically, we made due inquiry with respect to the City's Aldermen, the Mayor, the Treasurer and the City Clerk.

Attachment D

With respect to Section V B.3.a.: On July 28, 2022, the West Virginia State Treasurer placed Wells Fargo & Company on its Restricted Financial Institutions list as a result of its determination that certain financial institutions are boycotting energy companies. Pursuant to West Virginia Code Section 12-1C-1, et. seq., the Treasurer is authorized to disqualify listed financial institutions from the competitive bidding process for banking contracts, or to refuse to enter into banking contracts with listed financial institutions. On May 3, 2023, the Oklahoma State Treasurer placed Wells Fargo & Company on its Restricted Financial Company list as a result of its determination that certain financial companies are engaging in energy company boycotts.

The Disclosing Party certifies the accuracy of the certifications contained in Section V, paragraphs B and C (to its most current certification), as modified with the above exceptions, only as to itself and certifies that to the best of the Disclosing Party's knowledge after due inquiry, and as of May 2024, the statements in paragraph B, are accurate with respect to the executive officers and directors of the Disclosing Party identified in Section II.B.1.

Wells Fargo and certain of our subsidiaries are involved in a number of judicial, regulatory, governmental, arbitration, and other proceedings or investigations concerning matters arising from the conduct of our business activities, and many of those proceedings and investigations expose Wells Fargo to potential financial loss or other adverse consequences. These proceedings and investigations include actions brought against Wells Fargo and/or our subsidiaries with respect to corporate-related matters and transactions in which Wells Fargo and/or our subsidiaries were involved. In addition, Wells Fargo and our subsidiaries may be requested to provide information to or otherwise cooperate with government authorities in the conduct of investigations of other persons or industry groups. Based on information currently available, advice of counsel, available insurance coverage, and established reserves, Wells Fargo believes that the eventual outcome of the actions against Wells Fargo and/or its subsidiaries will not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on Wells Fargo's consolidated financial condition. Additionally, at this time, and to the best knowledge of the Wells Fargo Bank representatives preparing this response, Wells Fargo Bank has not been involved in any regulatory reviews or any legal actions that would have a material adverse effect on our ability to provide the services requested in this RFP.

To the extent any litigation or regulatory matters are required to be reported, they are disclosed in Wells Fargo's SEC filings and are matters of public record:

APPENDIX III

SLAVERY ERA BUSINESS SUMMARY

After years of research, Wells Fargo has found no records in its possession that indicate it – or any entities it acquired before the Wachovia merger – had ever financed slavery, held slaves as collateral, owned slaves, or profited from slavery.

Furthermore, Wells Fargo has found no records in its possession that entities it acquired after the Wachovia merger had financed slavery, held slaves as collateral, owned slaves, or profited from slavery.

With the Wachovia merger completed as of December 31, 2008, Wells Fargo inherited hundreds of Wachovia's predecessor financial institutions, including two that had extensive involvement in slavery. In 2005 Wachovia announced these findings and apologized for the role its predecessors played and renewed its commitment to preserve and promote the history of the African-American experience in our nation. Wells Fargo shares that commitment and affirms its long-standing opposition to slavery.

The following narrative summarizes the results of the research that has been performed regarding Wachovia Bank and its ties to slavery.

SUMMARY OF RESEARCH

External research has revealed that two predecessor institutions of the undersigned, the Georgia Railroad & Banking Company and the Bank of Charleston, owned slaves.

Due to incomplete records, the undersigned cannot determine exactly how many slaves either the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company or the Bank of Charleston owned. Through specific transactional records, researchers determined that the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company owned at least 162 slaves, and the Bank of Charleston accepted at least 529 slaves as collateral on mortgaged properties or loans, and acquired an undetermined number of these individuals when customers defaulted on their loans.

The Georgia Railroad and Banking Company was founded in 1833 to complete a railroad line between the City of Augusta and the interior of the state of Georgia. The company relied on slave labor for the construction and maintenance of this railway. According to the existing and searchable bank records, 162 slaves were owned or authorized to be purchased by the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company between 1836 and 1842. In addition, the company awarded work to contractors who purchased at least 400 slaves to perform work on the railways.

The Bank of Charleston, founded in 1834, issued loans and mortgages where enslaved individuals were used as collateral. A review of the bank's account ledgers revealed a minimum of 24 transactions involving reference to 529 enslaved individuals being used as collateral. In most cases, the loan was paid on schedule, and the bank never took possession of slaves that were pledged as collateral on the loan. In several documented instances, however, customers defaulted on their loans and the Bank of Charleston took actual possession of slaves. The total number of slaves of whom the bank took possession cannot be accurately tallied due to the lack of records.

In addition, eleven predecessor companies were determined to have profited more indirectly from slavery through the following means:

- Founders, directors, or account holders who owned slaves and/or profited directly from slavery;
- Investing in or transacting business with companies or individuals that owned slaves;
- Investing in the bonds of slave states and municipalities;
- Investing in U.S. government bonds during years when the United States permitted and profited from slave labor directly through taxation.

These institutions are:

- Bank of North America (Philadelphia, Pa.)
- Bank of Baltimore
- The Philadelphia Bank (later Philadelphia National Bank)
- Farmers' & Mechanics' Bank of Philadelphia
- Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and the Granting of Annuities
- State Bank of Elizabeth (Elizabeth, N.J.)
- State Bank of Newark (Newark, N.J.)
- Savings Bank of Baltimore
- Girard National Bank
- The Carswell Group (established in 1868, acquired by Palmer & Cay, Inc. in 1985)
- The Trenton Banking Company

Section II – Disclosure of Ownership Interests

As disclosed in the Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement, dated April 30, 2024, of Wells Fargo & Company (“Wells Fargo”), The Vanguard Group, Inc. and certain entities controlled or under common control with The Vanguard Group, Inc. (collectively the “Reporting Persons”) held approximately 8.99% of outstanding publicly traded common stock of Wells Fargo as of February 14, 2024. On information and belief, and in reliance on the statements made by The Vanguard Group, Inc. in a Schedule 13G/A filed with the SEC on February 13, 2024, the reported holdings represented shares of Wells Fargo’s common stock acquired by the Reporting Persons as passive investors and held in the ordinary course of business, without any intent to acquire, change, or influence control of Wells Fargo. Wells Fargo does not know if the Reporting Persons currently hold more than 7.5% of its outstanding common stock. In any event, Wells Fargo has no authority or ability to require the Reporting Persons to file, and the Reporting Persons are under no obligation to assist or cooperate with Wells Fargo in filing, an EDS.

Section III – Income or Compensation to, or Ownership by, City Elected Officials

The undersigned warrants, to the best of his knowledge after due inquiry, that the Disclosing Party has not provided any income or compensation to any City elected official in 12 months before, nor does the undersigned reasonably expect to during the 12-month period following, the date the undersigned has signed this EDS. As the date of this filing, the undersigned is in the process of completing our due diligence on Independent Contracts, when completed we will update this response if needed.

Note that in the ordinary course of its business, Wells Fargo makes loans of various types with individuals and businesses. We have determined that these loans do not constitute a "business relationship" as defined in Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code.

Note further that the Disclosing Party has no way of identifying spouses or domestic partners of any City elected official, or the identities of any entities in which any city elected official or his or her spouse or domestic partner has a financial interest, and thus limits its certification to "City elected officials" as specially required by Section III. Specifically, we made due inquiry with respect to the City's Aldermen, the Mayor, the Treasurer and the City Clerk.

With respect to Section V B.3.a.: On July 28, 2022, the West Virginia State Treasurer placed Wells Fargo & Company on its Restricted Financial Institutions list as a result of its determination that certain financial institutions are boycotting energy companies. Pursuant to West Virginia Code Section 12-1C-1, et. seq., the Treasurer is authorized to disqualify listed financial institutions from the competitive bidding process for banking contracts, or to refuse to enter into banking contracts with listed financial institutions. On May 3, 2023, the Oklahoma State Treasurer placed Wells Fargo & Company on its Restricted Financial Company list as a result of its determination that certain financial companies are engaging in energy company boycotts.

The Disclosing Party certifies the accuracy of the certifications contained in Section V, paragraphs B and C (to its most current certification), as modified with the above exceptions, only as to itself and certifies that to the best of the Disclosing Party's knowledge after due inquiry, and as of May 2024, the statements in paragraph B, are accurate with respect to the executive officers and directors of the Disclosing Party identified in Section II.B.1.

Wells Fargo and certain of our subsidiaries are involved in a number of judicial, regulatory, governmental, arbitration, and other proceedings or investigations concerning matters arising from the conduct of our business activities, and many of those proceedings and investigations expose Wells Fargo to potential financial loss or other adverse consequences. These proceedings and investigations include actions brought against Wells Fargo and/or our subsidiaries with respect to corporate-related matters and transactions in which Wells Fargo and/or our subsidiaries were involved. In addition, Wells Fargo and our subsidiaries may be requested to provide information to or otherwise cooperate with government authorities in the conduct of investigations of other persons or industry groups. Based on information currently available, advice of counsel, available insurance coverage, and established reserves, Wells Fargo believes that the eventual outcome of the actions against Wells Fargo and/or its subsidiaries will not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on Wells Fargo's consolidated financial condition. Additionally, at this time, and to the best knowledge of the Wells Fargo Bank representatives preparing this response, Wells Fargo Bank has not been involved in any regulatory reviews or any legal actions that would have a material adverse effect on our ability to provide the services requested in this RFP.

To the extent any litigation or regulatory matters are required to be reported, they are disclosed in Wells Fargo's SEC filings and are matters of public record:

- Copies of the Legal Proceedings sections from Wells Fargo's recent public filings and most recent periodic reports are available at https://www.wellsfargo.com/invest\_relations/filings

APPENDIX III

SLAVERY ERA BUSINESS SUMMARY

After years of research, Wells Fargo has found no records in its possession that indicate it – or any entities it acquired before the Wachovia merger – had ever financed slavery, held slaves as collateral, owned slaves, or profited from slavery.

Furthermore, Wells Fargo has found no records in its possession that entities it acquired after the Wachovia merger had financed slavery, held slaves as collateral, owned slaves, or profited from slavery.

With the Wachovia merger completed as of December 31, 2008, Wells Fargo inherited hundreds of Wachovia's predecessor financial institutions, including two that had extensive involvement in slavery. In 2005 Wachovia announced these findings and apologized for the role its predecessors played and renewed its commitment to preserve and promote the history of the African-American experience in our nation. Wells Fargo shares that commitment and affirms its long-standing opposition to slavery.

The following narrative summarizes the results of the research that has been performed regarding Wachovia Bank and its ties to slavery.

SUMMARY OF RESEARCH

External research has revealed that two predecessor institutions of the undersigned, the Georgia Railroad & Banking Company and the Bank of Charleston, owned slaves.

Due to incomplete records, the undersigned cannot determine exactly how many slaves either the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company or the Bank of Charleston owned. Through specific transactional records, researchers determined that the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company owned at least 162 slaves, and the Bank of Charleston accepted at least 529 slaves as collateral on mortgaged properties or loans, and acquired an undetermined number of these individuals when customers defaulted on their loans.

The Georgia Railroad and Banking Company was founded in 1833 to complete a railroad line between the City of Augusta and the interior of the state of Georgia. The company relied on slave labor for the construction and maintenance of this railway. According to the existing and searchable bank records, 162 slaves were owned or authorized to be purchased by the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company between 1836 and 1842. In addition, the company awarded work to contractors who purchased at least 400 slaves to perform work on the railways.

The Bank of Charleston, founded in 1834, issued loans and mortgages where enslaved individuals were used as collateral. A review of the bank's account ledgers revealed a minimum of 24 transactions involving reference to 529 enslaved individuals being used as collateral. In most cases, the loan was paid on schedule, and the bank never took possession of slaves that were pledged as collateral on the loan. In several documented instances, however, customers defaulted on their loans and the Bank of Charleston took actual possession of slaves. The total number of slaves of whom the bank took possession cannot be accurately tallied due to the lack of records.

In addition, eleven predecessor companies were determined to have profited more indirectly from slavery through the following means:

- Founders, directors, or account holders who owned slaves and/or profited directly from slavery;
- Investing in or transacting business with companies or individuals that owned slaves;
- Investing in the bonds of slave states and municipalities;
- Investing in U.S. government bonds during years when the United States permitted and profited from slave labor directly through taxation.

These institutions are:

- Bank of North America (Philadelphia, Pa.)
- Bank of Baltimore
- The Philadelphia Bank (later Philadelphia National Bank)
- Farmers' & Mechanics' Bank of Philadelphia
- Pennsylvania Company for Insurances on Lives and the Granting of Annuities
- State Bank of Elizabeth (Elizabeth, N.J.)
- State Bank of Newark (Newark, N.J.)
- Savings Bank of Baltimore
- Girard National Bank
- The Carswell Group (established in 1868, acquired by Palmer & Cay, Inc. in 1985)
- The Trenton Banking Company

Section II – Disclosure of Ownership Interests

As disclosed in the Notice of Annual Meeting and Proxy Statement, dated April 30, 2024, of Wells Fargo & Company ("Wells Fargo"), The Vanguard Group, Inc. and certain entities controlled or under common control with The Vanguard Group, Inc. (collectively the "Reporting Persons") held approximately 8.99% of outstanding publicly traded common stock of Wells Fargo as of February 14, 2024. On information and belief, and in reliance on the statements made by The Vanguard Group, Inc. in a Schedule 13G/A filed with the SEC on February 13, 2024, the reported holdings represented shares of Wells Fargo's common stock acquired by the Reporting Persons as passive investors and held in the ordinary course of business, without any intent to acquire, change, or influence control of Wells Fargo. Wells Fargo does not know if the Reporting Persons currently hold more than 7.5% of its outstanding common stock. In any event, Wells Fargo has no authority or ability to require the Reporting Persons to file, and the Reporting Persons are under no obligation to assist or cooperate with Wells Fargo in filing, an EDS.

Section III – Income or Compensation to, or Ownership by, City Elected Officials

The undersigned warrants, to the best of his knowledge after due inquiry, that the Disclosing Party has not provided any income or compensation to any City elected official in 12 months before, nor does the undersigned reasonably expect to during the 12-month period following, the date the undersigned has signed this EDS. As the date of this filing, the undersigned is in the process of completing our due diligence on Independent Contracts, when completed we will update this response if needed.

Note that in the ordinary course of its business, Wells Fargo makes loans of various types with individuals and businesses. We have determined that these loans do not constitute a "business relationship" as defined in Chapter 2-156 of the Municipal Code.

Note further that the Disclosing Party has no way of identifying spouses or domestic partners of any City elected official, or the identities of any entities in which any city elected official or his or her spouse or domestic partner has a financial interest, and thus limits its certification to "City elected officials" as specially required by Section III. Specifically, we made due inquiry with respect to the City's Aldermen, the Mayor, the Treasurer and the City Clerk.

With respect to Section V B.3.a.: On July 28, 2022, the West Virginia State Treasurer placed Wells Fargo & Company on its Restricted Financial Institutions list as a result of its determination that certain financial institutions are boycotting energy companies. Pursuant to West Virginia Code Section 12-1C-1, et. seq., the Treasurer is authorized to disqualify listed financial institutions from the competitive bidding process for banking contracts, or to refuse to enter into banking contracts with listed financial institutions. On May 3, 2023, the Oklahoma State Treasurer placed Wells Fargo & Company on its Restricted Financial Company list as a result of its determination that certain financial companies are engaging in energy company boycotts.

The Disclosing Party certifies the accuracy of the certifications contained in Section V, paragraphs B and C (to its most current certification), as modified with the above exceptions, only as to itself and certifies that to the best of the Disclosing Party's knowledge after due inquiry, and as of May 2024, the statements in paragraph B, are accurate with respect to the executive officers and directors of the Disclosing Party identified in Section II.B.1.

Wells Fargo and certain of our subsidiaries are involved in a number of judicial, regulatory, governmental, arbitration, and other proceedings or investigations concerning matters arising from the conduct of our business activities, and many of those proceedings and investigations expose Wells Fargo to potential financial loss or other adverse consequences. These proceedings and investigations include actions brought against Wells Fargo and/or our subsidiaries with respect to corporate-related matters and transactions in which Wells Fargo and/or our subsidiaries were involved. In addition, Wells Fargo and our subsidiaries may be requested to provide information to or otherwise cooperate with government authorities in the conduct of investigations of other persons or industry groups. Based on information currently available, advice of counsel, available insurance coverage, and established reserves, Wells Fargo believes that the eventual outcome of the actions against Wells Fargo and/or its subsidiaries will not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on Wells Fargo's consolidated financial condition. Additionally, at this time, and to the best knowledge of the Wells Fargo Bank representatives preparing this response, Wells Fargo Bank has not been involved in any regulatory reviews or any legal actions that would have a material adverse effect on our ability to provide the services requested in this RFP.

To the extent any litigation or regulatory matters are required to be reported, they are disclosed in Wells Fargo's SEC filings and are matters of public record:

APPENDIX III

SLAVERY ERA BUSINESS SUMMARY

After years of research, Wells Fargo has found no records in its possession that indicate it – or any entities it acquired before the Wachovia merger – had ever financed slavery, held slaves as collateral, owned slaves, or profited from slavery.

Furthermore, Wells Fargo has found no records in its possession that entities it acquired after the Wachovia merger had financed slavery, held slaves as collateral, owned slaves, or profited from slavery.

With the Wachovia merger completed as of December 31, 2008, Wells Fargo inherited hundreds of Wachovia's predecessor financial institutions, including two that had extensive involvement in slavery. In 2005 Wachovia announced these findings and apologized for the role its predecessors played and renewed its commitment to preserve and promote the history of the African-American experience in our nation. Wells Fargo shares that commitment and affirms its long-standing opposition to slavery.

The following narrative summarizes the results of the research that has been performed regarding Wachovia Bank and its ties to slavery.

SUMMARY OF RESEARCH

External research has revealed that two predecessor institutions of the undersigned, the Georgia Railroad & Banking Company and the Bank of Charleston, owned slaves.

Due to incomplete records, the undersigned cannot determine exactly how many slaves either the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company or the Bank of Charleston owned. Through specific transactional records, researchers determined that the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company owned at least 162 slaves, and the Bank of Charleston accepted at least 529 slaves as collateral on mortgaged properties or loans, and acquired an undetermined number of these individuals when customers defaulted on their loans.

The Georgia Railroad and Banking Company was founded in 1833 to complete a railroad line between the City of Augusta and the interior of the state of Georgia. The company relied on slave labor for the construction and maintenance of this railway. According to the existing and searchable bank records, 162 slaves were owned or authorized to be purchased by the Georgia Railroad and Banking Company between 1836 and 1842. In addition, the company awarded work to contractors who purchased at least 400 slaves to perform work on the railways.

The Bank of Charleston, founded in 1834, issued loans and mortgages where enslaved individuals were used as collateral. A review of the bank's account ledgers revealed a minimum of 24 transactions involving reference to 529 enslaved individuals being used as collateral. In most cases, the loan was paid on schedule, and the bank never took possession of slaves that were pledged as collateral on the loan. In several documented instances, however, customers defaulted on their loans and the Bank of Charleston took actual possession of slaves. The total number of slaves of whom the bank took possession cannot be accurately tallied due to the lack of records.

In addition, eleven predecessor companies were determined to have profited more indirectly from slavery through the following means:

- Founders, directors, or account holders who owned slaves and/or profited directly from slavery;
- Investing in or transacting business with companies or individuals that owned slaves;
