WHEREAS, We receive news of conflict, hate, and discord on a seemingly constant basis from around the globe; and

WHEREAS, The forces of division have at times infected both our national and local political discourse; and

WHEREAS, All Americans and all Chicagoans should have access to the peace and prosperity promised by the American dream; and

WHEREAS, Patience, understanding, and compromise are vital tools in combating the forces of division and returning us to normalcy; and

WHEREAS, Our City Council has been and can be a significant force for good by improving the lives of all of our residents; and

WHEREAS, Our City Council is most effective when it listens to viewpoints from all sides of an issue and works together to forge compromise and develop effective and meaningful legislation; and
