2-84-460 Furloughs and leaves of absence

Members of the department of police shall be entitled to a leave of absence from duty with full pay according to their years of service as follows:

Twelve consecutive weeks for any member for paid parental leave;

Twenty-eight consecutive days each year for any member who has ten or more years of service;

With the exception of parental leave, in every case the superintendent of police shall designate when such leave of absence shall be taken; provided, however, that in the computation of the total time of service of any member of the police department, furloughs or leave of absence for over one month shall be excluded from such total time of service of such member of the police department; provided, however, further, that all members and employees of the department of police shall, in addition to the furlough above provided for, have a furlough of two days in each week on the average with full pay.

SECTION 2. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
